SPONSORSHIP ARRANGEMENTS

1. Anyone can act as sponsor, it does not have to be an instructor.
2. The sponsor is to arrange which workshop/s they want presented and to set mutually agreeable date/s with me.
3. The responsibility of a sponsor thereafter is to organize the venue, attendees, teas and coffees as well as deal with the finances for the workshop they are sponsoring.
4. Either I, or the sponsor (to be arranged between us), will organize for the relevant manuals to be printed.
5. Income is agreed upon in one of two ways. The first option is that the sponsor attends the workshop free of charge or income after expenses is split between myself as instructor and the involved sponsor, whichever is the greater.
6. Income is divided, after expenses (sponsor/instructor), as follows: 20%/80% for groups of 6-10 persons. 30%/70% for 10-15 students, 40%/60% for groups larger than 15 attendees.
7. All Advanced Workshops will be run on the above basis from 2017 bar the ones contained in my course schedule for the coming year. Those will be held at Pinewood Farm, Camperdown, organized and presented by myself, as has been the case in the past.
8. From 2018 I will only lecture on a sponsorship basis.
